

MODIFICATION OF VISITATION
FAIRFIELD COUNTY COMMON PLEAS COURT

INSTRUCTIONS

Attached are forms requesting a modification in your visitation rights. These instructions are intended to be a general guide to help you get your request properly before the Judge. These instructions are not intended to be a legal analysis of your request and are not intended to assure you that you will win your Motion for Modification of Visitation. They are merely to assist you in preparing and presenting your request. IN ORDER FOR THESE FORMS TO WORK FOR YOU, YOU MUST READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS AND FOLLOW THEM CAREFULLY.

A. FILLING OUT THE FORMS

1. You should fill out these forms before you go to the Courthouse to file them. Other than telling you the time and date of the hearing, the Court staff will not help you in completing these forms. Make sure the forms are typewritten or printed neatly in blue or black ink. The Judge must be able to read what you write.
2. At the top of the Post-Decree Motion for Modification of Visitation, you need to fill in the names of the Plaintiff/Petitioner and Defendant/Respondent (whichever the case may be) and the addresses, social security numbers and dates of birth under each parties' name. You need to also fill in the Case Number. This information is available from your final Divorce or Dissolution Decree or on other papers that have been previously filed in your case with the Court. If you do not have the case number, you can get it from the Clerk of Courts Office at the Courthouse.
3. In the first blank of the first paragraph, fill in your name. Under Memorandum in Support, in the spaces provided, list the reason(s) that you have for wanting visitation modified. You need to be very specific when writing the reason(s). You must write down what specifically has happened since the last Visitation Order. For example: If you are not the parent with custody and the child(ren)'s legal custodian has been denying you visitation, you should say so. If your work hours have changed and you cannot visit at the times ordered, you should write that down. Please print or type neatly. The Judge must be able to read what you write.
4. The Court in Fairfield County has a Standard Order of Visitation which is attached to these instructions. If you want this type of visitation, you should say so in the first paragraph of the Memorandum in Support. If you would like changes in your visitation other than those in the first paragraph of the Memorandum or the Standard Order of Visitation, then you should say what you want.

5. Below the Memorandum in Support are four blank lines. You should sign your name on the first line and print or type your address and phone number on the last three lines.
6. Under the words Instructions for Service, print or type the child(ren)'s legal custodian's name in the first blank and the street address, city, state, and zip code in the second blank. You must have a valid address for the Clerk's office to be able to mail the Motion for Modification of Visitation to the child(ren)'s legal custodian. If you do not have a valid address, do not even bother to try to file your papers. The Judge has no authority to grant a Motion for Modification of Visitation unless the child(ren)'s legal custodian has been served with a copy of the Motion and has been given the opportunity to be heard on this Motion. Sign your name on the last line.
7. For the Notice of Hearing, fill in the names of the Plaintiff/Petitioner and the Defendant/Respondent and the Case Number. The Assignment Clerk will fill in the date and time for the hearing on the Notice of Hearing.
8. Fill out the document called Information for Child Custody Proceeding. Fill out the parties' names and case number as you did on the Motion. In the first blank, write in your name. There are blank lines for you to list the names of your children and their dates of birth. Also, you need to state the addresses where the children have lived for the past five years, the dates they lived there, and the names of the people they lived with. Start with your current address and go back through your other addresses until you have gone back either five years or to the birth of the child of, whichever is more recent. If you run out of room on the form, use an extra piece of paper to finish.
9. Read questions three, four, five, and six of the Affidavit carefully and mark the answer that applies to you -- either answer Yes or No to the questions asked. If #3 is yes, write down the case number and court of any known case currently pending concerning custody of the children in the blank provided. Do the same with Questions #4 and #6. For #5, list the name and address of anyone who is not a party to this action who might have a claim to custody or visitation of the children, if there is anyone. You must sign the affidavit on the line above the word "Affiant" in front of a Notary Public.
10. Fill out the Affidavit of Indigency if you do not have the income to pay a deposit on court costs for the filing of your Motion for Modification of Visitation. To find out the amount of the deposit you should call the Fairfield County Clerk of Courts Office at (740) 687-7030. At the top of the form fill in the names of both parties and the Case Number. YOU NEED TO SIGN THE AFFIDAVIT OF INDIGENCY IN FRONT OF A NOTARY PUBLIC.
11. On the form marked Entry, fill out only the names of the parties and the case number. Leave the rest of this form blank.

12. If income will be an issue, you need to fill out the Financial Affidavit to the best of your knowledge. If any of the information you provide is estimated, you should say it is an estimate. You will need to sign the Financial Affidavit in front of a notary public. You should also be prepared to bring a copy of last year's tax return, including all W-2's and schedules, as well as a copy of your current pay stub or wage statement with a year-to-date figure, to Court with you for verification of your income.
13. If this motion will result in the establishment of child support, you will need to immediately go to your local Child Support Enforcement Agency to apply for child support. You should submit a copy of your application for Child Support Enforcement Agency services with the rest of the papers you are filing.
14. Make three (3) copies of each page of each form you have filled out.

B. FILING THE MOTION FOR MODIFICATION OF VISITATION

1. After you have filled all the forms out, make three copies of each and go to the Clerk's Office, 2nd Floor, Fairfield County Hall of Justice, 224 E. Main Street, Lancaster, Ohio. This is the only place you can file your papers.
2. When you file your Post-Decree Motion for Modification of Visitation, the Clerks's staff will take the original and two copies of your papers. You should ask the Clerk to time-stamp your copy of the Motion, Notice, Financial Affidavit and Information for Child Custody Proceeding, which you may keep. This will be your proof that you have filed the original. You will not get a copy of the Entry back unless/until the Judge the Judge approves it.

C. PREPARATION FOR THE HEARING

1. You must be prepared for the hearing. You must dress as you would for a job interview and have any witnesses that you wish to use to support your request. You should also have any receipts, papers or other physical evidence that you want the Judge to see.
2. You should bring with you the specific part of the Court's previous Visitation Order (which may be in your decree) that you want to change. You need to have this with you so you can explain to the Court why this order or decree is not working for you and why you need a new visitation arrangement. You should tell the Judge why it would be in the best interests of your child(ren) to have the visitation changed. This is your only chance to present the facts, so make sure you include everything. It would be helpful if you were to write down, before the day of your hearing, an outline of your reasons for wanting this change of visitation, so that you will have something to remind yourself of what to say when you testify.

3. VERY IMPORTANT!!!! THIS IS NOT THE TIME TO TELL THE JUDGE EVERYTHING THAT THE CHILD(REN)'S LEGAL CUSTODIAN HAS DONE THAT YOU DISAGREE WITH, OR THAT HAS HURT OR ANGERED YOU. THE JUDGE WILL ONLY WANT TO HEAR THE EVIDENCE THAT SHOWS OR SUPPORTS THE SPECIFIC CHANGES THAT YOU WANT CONCERNING VISITATION. BE PREPARED TO LIMIT YOUR TESTIMONY TO ONLY THOSE ISSUES RAISED IN YOUR MOTION FOR MODIFICATION OF VISITATION. THE JUDGE WILL LISTEN TO NOTHING ELSE.
4. At your hearing, you may be asked questions by the Judge, the child(ren)'s legal custodian, or your child(ren)'s legal custodian's attorney. Before answering each question, listen carefully to it. Be sure you provide the information that you are asked. If you do not understand the question, ask to have the question explained to you before answering. You have the right to have these questions explained. It is not your fault if the person asking the question cannot make him or herself understood.

GOOD LUCK!

An oral hearing is requested to enable me to establish these facts.

Take notice that an application to the Child Support Enforcement Agency to investigate and establish a child and medical support order is being submitted.

Respectfully submitted:

FAIRFIELD COUNTY COMMON PLEAS COURT
DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION
RULE 17.0 STANDARD PARENTING TIME ORDER
(EFFECTIVE FOR CASES DECIDED AFTER MARCH 1, 2004)

17.1 LOCAL PARENTING TIME. The following schedule is applicable to those situations where the parties live within 150 miles of each other. The primary goal of any parenting time schedule is to maintain contact between the non-residential parent and the child(ren). The optimum parenting time schedule is where the parties agree to be as flexible as possible.

17.11 Regular Parenting Time. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time on alternate weekends from Friday, 6:00 p.m. until Sunday, 6:00 p.m.; however, if the preceding Friday or the following Monday of that weekend is a holiday during which the non-residential parent is scheduled to have parenting time, then parenting time will be expanded to include the holiday by beginning Thursday evening at 6:00 p.m. (if Friday is the holiday) or shall extend through Monday to 6:00 P.M. (if Monday is the holiday).

The non-residential parent will have mid-week parenting time of 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday evening every week. At the discretion of the non-residential parent, if he or she has the facilities and is able to take the child to school on Thursday morning this parenting time period may extend all night Wednesday and the non-residential parent must provide transportation and deliver the child to school on Thursday morning or to the residence of the residential parent or to daycare by 9:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

17.12 Holidays. For the following listed holidays:

- | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------|
| (1) Martin Luther King Day | (3) President's Day |
| (2) Easter or Passover | (4) Memorial Day |
| (5) July 4th | (6) Veteran's Day |
| (7) Labor Day | |

the parenting time schedule shall be:

For the years ending with an odd number, the non-residential parent shall have parenting time on the above odd numbered holidays, and the residential parent shall have parenting time on the above even numbered holidays. For the years ending with an even number, the non-residential parent shall have parenting time on the above even numbered holidays, and the residential parent shall have parenting time on the above odd numbered holidays. Parenting time shall be from 6:00 p.m. the day before the holiday to 6:00 p.m. of the holiday except that with notice to the other parent, the July 4th return may be delayed until the following morning at 9:00 a.m.; however, where a non-residential parent's work schedule would not permit this parenting time, the holiday parenting time will be restricted to the hours the non-residential parent can actually spend with the child(ren) between 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. (except July 4th as noted above) unless notice is given that the child(ren) will be staying with grandparents during the holiday parenting time. Holidays shall take precedence over regular weekend parenting time.

17.13 Days of Special Meaning. Mother's Day shall always be with the children's mother and Father's Day Shall always be with the Children's father, regardless of the weekend parenting time schedule. If the parties cannot agree, the times shall be 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The Child(ren)'s birthdays shall always be with the mother in years ending with even numbers and always with the father in years ending with odd numbers. The non-residential parent must provide one week's notice of the intent to have parenting time for the birthday. If the parties cannot agree, the parenting time shall be 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. if the birth falls on a non-school day for the child and a non-working day for the designated parent. If it is the child's school day or the designated parent's work day, the parenting time shall be 5:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. The child(ren)'s birthday parenting time Schedules take precedent over all other designated parenting times. Brothers and sisters shall be permitted to attend the birthday event.

17.14 Extended Holiday Periods. There are certain holiday periods where school age children receive additional time of from school during spring breaks, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

For the years ending in even numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for the years ending in odd numbers, the residential parent shall have parenting time as follows:

(1) Thanksgiving break: Wednesday before Thanksgiving from 6:00 p.m. to Friday after Thanksgiving at 6:00 p.m.

(2) Spring break: 6:00 p.m. the first day of the break through 6:00 p.m. of the last day before school vacation ends. If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which, the residential parent resides shall determine the Spring break dates.

17.15 Christmas Parenting Time. For the years ending in even numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for the years ending in odd numbers, the residential parent shall have Christmas parenting time from 6:00 P.M. on the last day of school before Christmas break until 2:00 p.m. on December 25.

For the years ending in odd numbers, the non-residential parent shall have, and for years ending in even numbers, the residential parent shall have Christmas parenting time from 2:00 p.m. on December 25 until 6:00 P.M. on January 1.

If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which the residential parent resides shall determine the Christmas break dates.

17.16 Summer Vacations. The non-residential parent shall have the opportunity to have the child(ren) for five (5) weeks during the summer vacation which may be exercised in two blocks of no more than three weeks separated by at least 14 days. During summer vacation there will be reciprocal weekends and mid-week parenting time for the residential parent. Provided also that the parties shall each have two weeks of uninterrupted parenting time with the children without parenting time with the other.

Both the residential and the non-residential parent shall provide the other party with notice of the weeks during which he or she intends to exercise summer vacation with the minor child(ren) on or before April 15 of that year. The non-residential parent's choice of vacation has priority over the residential parent's choice unless the residential parent's vacation is during a mandatory shut-down of that party's employer.

17.17 Transportation.

The non-residential parent is responsible for all transportation associated with midweek parenting time. The transportation associated with all other parenting times shall be equally divided between the parents as follows: The child(ren) shall be picked up at the home of the residential parent by the non-residential parent, or a designated driver, at the beginning of the non-residential parent's time. The residential parent, or a designated driver, shall pick up the child(ren) from the non-residential parent's home at the beginning of the residential parent's time.

17.2 LONG DISTANCE PARENTING TIME (FOR PARTIES RESIDING OVER 150 MILES APART)

The intent of long distance parenting time (over 150 miles) is the same as when the parties are located reasonably close to one another and that is to maintain contact between the child(ren) and the non-residential parent. Both parties are encouraged to be as flexible as possible concerning parenting time.

17.21 Extended Holiday Periods. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time:

(A) Thanksgiving: From 6:00 p.m. Wednesday (before Thanksgiving Day) to Sunday, 6:00 p.m.

(B) Spring Break: From 6:00 p.m. of the first day of the break to 6:00 p.m. of the day before school starts.

(C) Christmas Break: From 3:00 P.M. Christmas Day (or Hanukkah) to 6:00 p.m. on the last day before school resumes after New Year's Day.

If the child is not of school age, the school schedule for the school district in which the residential parent resides shall determine the Spring and Christmas break dates.

17.22 Summer Vacation. The non-residential parent shall have seven (7) weeks of summer parenting time with the child(ren) which shall be exercised at the discretion of the non-residential parent in two blocks of not more than four weeks separated by at least two weeks. During summer vacation there will be reciprocal weekends for the residential parent if travel time is less than six hours (round trip). In any event, with school age children, the child shall be returned to the residential parent at least one week prior to the start of school. The only exception would be where the residential parent's vacation is controlled by mandatory shut-down of employer's operations. The non-residential parent shall provide the residential parent with notice of the weeks during which he or she intends to exercise summer vacation with the minor child(ren) on or before April 15 of that year.

17.23 Additional Vacation Times. The non-residential parent may exercise additional parenting time with the child(ren) as follows:

(A) Where the travel time does not involve more than six hours (round trip), the non-residential parent may exercise each year one period of parenting time for a three day weekend during a holiday otherwise designated for a non-residential parent under Rule 17.12 beginning at 4:30 p.m. the day before the first day of the three day weekend to 8:30 p.m. of the last day of the three day weekend. The non-residential parent must provide a thirty day notice of intent to exercise this parenting time.

(B) If the non-residential parent elects to travel to the area where the child(ren) normally reside, the non-residential parent may exercise parenting time pursuant to Rule 17.13 except the following times would apply:

(1) Mother'S/Father'S Day: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

(2) Non-residential Parent's Birthday: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Non-school days); 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (school days); (if both parents have same birth date, they are to alternate).

(3) Child(ren)'s Birthday: 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. (non-school days), 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. (school days).

(C) If the non-residential parent intends to exercise this additional parenting time, fourteen (14) days notice must be given to the residential parent. Unless the order or decree specifies otherwise, the non-residential parent shall be responsible for the costs of transportation for any parenting time exercised under this Section 17.23.

17.24 Transportation. Where the parties reside more than 150 miles apart, the parties will divide the hours of transportation and the expense as evenly as possible.

17.3 PARENTING TIME WITH INFANTS (AGE BIRTH TO IS MONTHS)

The court recognizes that parenting time with infants raises special concerns for the parties because of the care, skill and needs of the infant. During this most formative of times it is important that both parents are able to observe, share and participate in activities with the infant. The court encourages the non-residential parent to have frequent short visits with the infant at the beginning, with more and longer visits as the infant grows and the comfort level for the infant and parent increases.

17.31 Birth to twelve months. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 2:00 P.M. until 6:00 p.m. on Sundays and 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, every week.

17.32 Twelve months to 18 months. The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 10:00 a.m. on Saturdays to 6:00 p.m. on Sundays, and from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, every week.

17.33 After 18 months. Regular parenting time schedule applies.

17.34 Special Situations. If the parties have an infant who is younger than 18 months of age and either parent does not believe this infant schedule is appropriate in their circumstances then, upon the request of either parent, the court will schedule an oral hearing for the purpose of establishing a reasonable parenting time schedule. Said hearing will be scheduled for 30 minutes, allowing each parent 15 minutes to present his/her case.

17.4 GENERAL RULES (APPLICABLE TO ALL PARENTING TIME ORDERS)

(A) Notice. Parents have a right to visit their child(ren) and the child(ren) has the right to prepare for and expect a visit. Notice of the intent not to visit shall be given 24 hours in advance. The child(ren) must only be available for 30 minutes past the scheduled pick-up unless prior arrangements have been made by the parties.
